Dear Mr. Galluzzo,

Thank you for again using my services at the recent Magic Millions Yearling Sale to select and purchase the magnificent Commands – Only One Night colt:

Your colt, in my view, is an exceptional type, correct in conformation with great bone and bigger than many of the Commands stock at the same stage.

He has a very well balanced pedigree featuring a powerful double cross of Northern Dancer and his young dam Only One Night has produced the winner Dancing Aunt (also by a son of Danehill) as her first foal. The mare's second foal named Hand Picked (colt by Elusive Quality) is yet to race but placed in a Randwick barrier trial and shows promise for trainer John O'Shea.

If you want a winner it is hard to go past the stock of Commands who has a very high 68.2 percent winners-to-runners ratio plus 20 individual stakeswinners and another 19 runners placed in feature races. So far the males by Commands have been his best performers as only three of his 20 stakeswinners are females.

As mentioned to you, it is worth noting that your colt's fourth dam Aunt Edith was a near champion in Europe in the mid-to late 1960s, beating the best males in the Group 1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Stakes and also taking the Yorkshire Cup, Prix Vermeille and the Nassau Stakes.

Best of luck with this impressive colt.

Yours faithfully,

Les Young
